

Congratulations to the 2009 scholarship recipient, Jenna DiVincenzo.

Jenna grew up in Rochester and went to Webster Schroeder High School. From high school Jenna went to SUNY Brockport for a semester. It was there that Jenna found her real passion for nutrition and transferred to MCC. She transferred in 2005 with intentions to complete the 2+2 program and transfer to RIT. In 2007, Jenna started at RIT in the Nutrition Management program. She graduated in May 2009. Jenna started an internship at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston, MA in June 2009.
