

Congratulations to the 2010 scholarship recipient, Janel Kelly.

Janel grew up in Prospect Connecticut and attended Woodland Regional High School. Upon graduation from High School in the summer of 2006, Janel moved to Rochester, New York to attend Rochester Institute of Technology. While attending RIT, Janel found her passion in nutrition and science to continue to grow. Janel will graduate from RIT in May 2010 with a Bachelors of Science in Nutrition Management. Janel will begin her dietetic internship at Syracuse University in late August. Janel is very excited to start the dietetic internship since she will have the chance to further explore her interests in nutrition and begin her career in dietetics.
